Additional information concerning attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

EXHIBIT A

EXHIBIT A TO SUBPOENA
DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. “Communication” means any oral or written statement, dialogue, colloquy, discussion, or conversation, and includes any transfer of thoughts or ideas or data or information, between persons or locations by means of any Documents or by any other means, including but not limited to electronic or similar means.

2. “Control” means in your possession, custody or control or under your direction, and includes in the possession, custody or control of those under the direction of you or your employees, subordinates, counsel, accountant, consultant, expert, parent or affiliated corporation, and any person purporting to act on your behalf.

3. “Document” means any written or graphic matter and other means of preserving thought or expression and all tangible things from which information can be processed or transcribed, including the originals and all non-identical copies, whether different from the original by reason of any notation made on such copy or otherwise, including, but not limited to, correspondence, emails, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, telegrams, teletype, telefax, bulletins, meetings or other communications, inter-office and intra-office telephone calls, diaries, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, studies, summaries, pamphlets, bulletins, printed matter, charts, ledgers, invoices, worksheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, prospectuses, financial statements, schedules, affidavits, contracts, canceled checks, statements, transcripts, statistics, surveys, magazine or newspaper articles, releases (and any and all drafts, alterations or modifications, changes and amendments of any of the foregoing), graphic or aural records or representations of any kind (including without limitation, photographs, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, records and motion pictures) and electronic, mechanical or electric records or representations of any kind (including without limitation, tapes, cassettes, discs and records) as well as all Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”), which refers to any type of information that is created, used, or stored in digital form and accessible by digital means, including but not limited to, all data, digital documents, email, electronic documents, and metadata of the same (and is further defined below). For the avoidance of doubt, Document includes but is not limited to all Communications.

4. “Person” refers to any natural individual, governmental entity, or business entity, including a corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity or combination thereof, and all corporations, divisions, or entities affiliated with, owned, or controlled directly or indirectly or owning or controlling directly or indirectly any such entities as well as directors, officers, managers, employees, agents, attorneys, affiliates, or other representatives thereof, or third parties retained by any of the above.

5. The terms “related to”, “relate to”, or “relating to” shall mean directly or indirectly, refer to, reflect, describe, pertain to, arise out of or in connection with, or in any way legally, logically, or factually be connected with the matter discussed.

6. “Representative” means any and all agents, employees, servants, officers, directors, attorneys, or other persons acting or purporting to act on behalf of the person in question.

7. The words “and” and “or” as used herein shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as required by the context to bring within the scope of these Requested Documents any answer that might be deemed outside their scope by another construction.

8. When producing the Documents, please keep all Documents segregated by the file in which the Documents are contained and indicate the name of the file in which the Documents are contained, and the name of the Documents being produced.

9. When producing the required Documents, please produce all other Documents that are clipped, stapled, or otherwise attached to any requested Document.

10. In the event such file(s) or Document(s) has (have) been removed, either for the purpose of this action or for some other purpose, please state the name and address of the person who removed the file, the title of the file and each subfile, if any, maintained within the file, and the present location of the file.

11. Each draft, final Document, original, reproduction, and each signed and unsigned Document and every additional copy of such Document where such copy contains any commentary, note, notation or other change whatsoever that does not appear on the original or on the copy of the one Document produced shall be deemed and considered to constitute a separate Document.

12. If any of the Documents encompassed by the attached request for production of Documents is/are deemed by you to be privileged, furnish all non-privileged Documents and provide a log outlining all Documents claimed as privileged which includes: (a) the type of privilege claimed for each Document; (b) a brief description of the Document; (c) the author of the Document sufficient to identify it; (d) the recipient (if any); (e) the date of the Document.

13. When appropriate, the singular form of a word should be interpreted in the plural as may be necessary to bring within the scope hereof any Documents which might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope hereof.

14. In addition to Documents currently in your possession, custody or control, you are to produce all Documents within the scope of these requests that are not currently in your possession, custody, or control but can be obtained through reasonable effort.

15. This request calls for the production of all electronic Documents and electronically stored information (ESI) responsive to the requests below, including but not limited to e-mails and any related attachments, electronic files, or other data compilations that relate to the categories of Documents requested below. Your search for these electronically stored Documents shall include all of your computer hard drives, floppy discs, compact discs, backup and archival tapes, removable media such as zip drives, password protected and encrypted files, databases, electronic calendars, personal digital assistants, iPhones, smart phones, tablets, iPads, proprietary software, and inactive or unused computer disc storage areas.
